ISNCSCI instruction course in Heidelberg

Dear colleagues of the EMSCI project,

The common base of knowledge is the main prerequisite for valid and reliable analysis of data from different centers. This is especially important for the ISNCSCI assessments. The standardization of the assessment procedure may lead to significant improvement of the data quality. Hence, we agreed to arrange regular interdisciplinary workshop meetings.

For this purpose we want to inform you about the upcoming ISNCSCI instructional course in Heidelberg. The workshop focuses on the enhancement of your practical and theoretical ISNCSCI skills:

Thursday 21th February 2019

13.00h	Welcome
13.20h	ISNCSCI Pre-test
13.45h	Theory of the ISNCSCI protocol
15.15h	Coffee break
15.30h	Theory of the ISNCSCI protocol
16.15h	Coffee break
16.30h	Practice of the ISNCSCI protocol
18.00h	End of day one
