

ISNCSCI instruction course in Heidelberg

Dear colleagues of the EMSCI project,

The common base of knowledge is the main prerequisite for valid and reliable analysis of data from different centres. This is especially important for the ISNCSCI assessments. The standardization of the assessment procedure may lead to significant improvement of the data quality. Hence, we agreed to arrange regular interdisciplinary workshop meetings.

For this purpose we want to inform you about the upcoming ISNCSCI instructional course in Heidelberg. The workshop focuses on the enhancement of your practical and theoretical ISNCSCI skills:
